ALL CUSTOMERS	N/A	Until revoked	Section 5.4(k)(v), GT&C	MRTâ€™s tariff provides that if a Customer fails to satisfy MRTâ€™s credit criteria, such Customer may still obtain service if it provides MRT with (A) a continuing deposit equal to a minimum of six (6) months service; (B) a standby irrevocable letter of credit drawn upon a bank acceptable to MRT; or (C) a guarantee by a person or other entity which does satisfy MRTâ€™s credit appraisal. When a Customer fails to satisfy the credit criteria, it is MRTâ€™s practice to require security in an amount sufficient to cover three (3) months service (which shall include, if applicable, reservation or estimated usage charges and cash-out exposure amounts). The form of security, e.g., letter of credit, parental guaranty or deposit may vary depending on the circumstance. Accordingly, pursuant to its authority under Section 29.1, GT&C, of its tariff, guaranty or deposit may vary depending on the circumstance. Accordingly, pursuant to its authority under Section 29.1, GT&C, of its tariff, described above.	Cy Zebot	03/26/2006

Additionally, MRT will waive the prospective nomination requirement to the extent necessary to correct errors relating to Customersâ€™ transportation transactions that occur due to Customersâ€™ errors, to the extent such Customer is the only party affected and MRT is not harmed.
